Marriage and Relationship Educators' Association of Australia Inc. (MAREAA) Working Together for Marriage and Relationship Educators

Marriage and Relationship Education is an adult education activity designed to inform and enrich relationships and individuals. Members of this association facilitate programs for individuals, couples, families and groups of all ages. Programs may include preparation for marriage, skills for strengthening relationships, school programs, parenting, stepfamilies, men's issues, workplace relationships, personal development, conflict management, rebuilding after separation or divorce. "MAREAA", formerly the Marriage Educators Association of Australia (MEAA), was constituted in Melbourne in September 1995, to meet the professional needs of marriage and relationship educators throughout Australia.

Goals of MAREAA

1. To encourage and represent marriage and relationship educators;
2. To facilitate professional development in all areas of the field;
3. To disseminate, implement and uphold national standards of practice (COMPETENCY STANDARDS and CODE OF ETHICS)
4. To facilitate networking among members;
5. To continue to establish and support State and regional branches;
6. To recruit more members;
7. To form productive working partnerships with other organisations in the field of Marriage and Relationship Education;
8. To encourage and disseminate research in the field.

Membership is open to individuals and couples who are practicing marriage, relationship and family education.
